The London Welsh Rugby Club Choir closed a successful day at the Meetings Show in London yesterday, with a rousing rendition of Men of Harlech and other traditional favourites. The Choir drew considerable attention to the Wales stand at the prestigious show at Kensington Olympia. Representatives from the International Convention Centre Wales, Welsh Government, Visit Wales and other Welsh partners are attending the show to drum up business for the region from nearly 3,000 event planners from all over the world.

Opening in 2019, the ICC Wales is located within the grounds of the Celtic Manor Resort in Newport just two minutes from the M4. The new-build 26,000sqm venue will accommodate 5,000 delegates and includes a 4,000sqm pillar-free main hall, a 1,500 seated auditorium, 12 flexible meeting rooms, a double-height glass atrium and a 2,500sqm outdoor plaza for outside events and teambuilding.

The ICC Wales is a joint venture between the owners of the Celtic Manor Resort and Welsh Government and is managed by Celtic Manor's expert leadership team responsible for the successful delivery of the 2014 NATO Summit and the 2010 Ryder Cup.
